Have you ever noticed that our deepest longings - for meaning, love, and significance - can lead us away from, instead of toward, our Creator? The Fergusons challenge seekers to get back on track by praying "God, if you're real, make yourself real to me." Dare to believe that God wants you to be found, and wake up to who you really are!

AWAKENING TO HELP

"We admit that we are powerless over our _____." (you fill in the blank)

"We would rather be ruined than changed. We would rather die in our dread than climb the cross of the present and let our illusions die." -- Richard Rohr

Luke 15:17-19 came to his senses ... "I will set out and go back to my father.
Verse 20a So he got up and went to his father ...

"God, if you are real, make yourself real to me. Awaken in me the willingness to turn toward you for help."

What kind of God do we find when we come back home?
Verse 20b But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with love and compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

HELP HAS A NAME... AND THAT NAME IS _____.
